| 16. | SANCERRE, 2005/06
Domaine Vacheron, Loire, France
Highly-praised Sancerre producer living up to the Domaine reputation with an excellent example of Loire Sauvignon Blanc. | 33.00 |
| 18. | POUILLY FUMÉ, Les Logeres, 2006
Guy Saget, Loire, France
With terrific balance and depth, and the elegance and the smoky richness that only Pouilly Fumé, of all the Sauvignon Blancs, can achieve. | 28.00 |
| 19. | GRENACHE-SAUVIGNON BLANC, 2008
Les Terrasses, Vin de Pays de Coteaux de l'Ardeche, France
A fresh, clean and fruity white from the Cevennes mountains. | 13.95 |
| 20. | CHENIN BLANC, 2008
Klippenkop, Western Cape, South Africa
Light and fragrant, with an ultra fresh pear quality, perfect with lighter fish and chicken dishes. | 15.00 |
| 21. | DART VALLEY 'RESERVE', 2007
Sharpham Vineyard, Totnes, Devon, England
A full flavoured, zippy white, grown only a few miles from here! Very energetic and exuberant with masses of dry, crunchy fruit to the fore. | 18.00 |
| 22. | SAUVIGNON BLANC, 2008
Vina Carmen, Curico Valley, Chile
Crammed with fresh gooseberry fruit flavours – classic New World Sauvignon | 15.95 |
| 23. | PINOT GRIGIO DELLA VENEZIA, 2007
Ardesia, Italy
Light straw colour. Fine, elegant, clean and intense aroma. Dry to taste with a pleasant green apple aftertaste. A lively and easy to drink white. | 18.50 |
| 24. | MAYVAL, Medium Dry 2006
Manstree Estate, Exeter, Devon
From their beautiful estate just outside Exeter in Shillingford St George, the Boyce family grow fantastic Madeline Angevine and Seyval Blanc grapes which are blended together in this off dry, fruity fresh elegant wine which shows just | 19.50 |

how far English wine has evolved in the last 10 years.

Aromatic Grapey and Spicy, unoaked Whites.

From Fully dry to Medium Sweet – listed in order, driest first Superb with spicy foods and smoked fish dishes.

- 25. CLOUDY BAY SAUVIGNON BLANC, 2007 38.00
Cloudy Bay, Marlborough, New Zealand
The ultimate New World Sauvignon from one of the most famous wineries in the world. Concentrated and aromatic with classic elderflower and gooseberry fruit, and a complex tropical fruit quality.
- 26. SAUVIGNON BLANC, 2008 22.00
Saint Clair, Marlborough, New Zealand
The Award winning Saint Clair is a full, crisp and powerful wine, with intense aromas and flavours of passion fruit and blackcurrant underlying the gooseberry tones. Mouth-watering acidity is balanced by a full yet elegant palate that leads to a long lingering finish.
- Awards for the Saint Clair Sauvignon:
- Decanter World Wine Awards New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc Trophy, London 2008
- Gold Medal Winner at New Zealand International Wine Show 2007
- Wine maker Matt Thompson awarded 2008 International White Wine Maker of the year at the London International Wine Challenge.
- 28. GEWURZTRAMINER, 2006 19.00
Paul Cluver Estate, Elgin, South Africa
Quite the best Gewurztraminer we have tasted outside Alsace, dry and fresh, with incredible depth of rose petal and lychee fruit.
- 29. VIOGNIER, 2006 18.50
Domaine St Hilaire, Vin de Pays d'Oc, France
Domaine St. Hilaire's Viognier is alluringly exotic, with an aroma of ripe apricots, peaches and honeysuckle. The palate exudes lush and unctuous fruit flavours, which is due to the fact that the vines are over 20 years old and were planted long before this variety was fashionable.
- 30. PINOT BLANC, 2004 18.95
Domaine Henry Fuchs, Ribeauvillé, Alsace, France
From a virtually organic winery, which dramatically reduces its yields to produce outstandingly concentrated, rich and weighty wines. Off, to medium dry with a very long, honeyed finish.
- 31. RIESLING, 2006 30.00
Hermann Donnhoff, Nahe, Germany
Fuller bodied than the fine Rieslings of the Mosel, the best wines of the Nahe region are piercingly aromatic with fine lime fresh nose, a white peach fruitiness, a unique minerality and outstanding balance.
One of the best Estates in Germany, let alone the Nahe, the Donnhoffs have been making wine since the 1750's, and Helmut Donnhoff, the present winemaker has been awarded Gault Millau's winemaker of the year, credited with playing a crucial part in reestablishing the reputation of German Riesling.

Richer, Weighty, and Oaked Whites

We have marked the wines (O) which have a perceptible oak influence.

32. RIOJA BLANCO, Monople, 2005 (O) 22.00
C.V.N.E, Haro. Rioja Alta, Spain
This could only be White Rioja, with its intense, crisp citrusy fruit, which is barrel fermented, giving a pervasive oakiness, and a lovely long creamy finish. Superb!
33. MARSANNE, Thomas Mitchell, 2005 17.00
Mitchelton Winery, New South Wales, Australia
Extraordinary value! Fresh yet powerful aromatic dry white with a characteristic hint of honeysuckle on the nose, citrus marmalade on the palate and a touch of honey on the finish.
34. CHABLIS 1ER CRU, Mont de Milieu, 2006 38.50
Domaine Pinson, Chablis, Burgundy, France
Established in the early 17th Century, this 10 hectare estate is one of the most 'senior' estates in Chablis, both in terms of its reputation and the sheer quality of its wines. The Mont de Milieu is a full-bodied 1er Cru, rich with honeyed fruit and tremendous concentration of flavour. A great Chablis from a great vintage.
35. MACON BLANC DAVAYÉ, 2007 23.00
Domaine des Maillettes, Maconnais, Burgundy, France
A luscious "mineral" Chardonnay, with masses of generous but very pure fruit, and a sensational rich finish.
36. PULIGNY MONTRACHET, les Charmes, 2003 49.00
Domaine Jean-Louis Chavy, Burgundy, France
From one of the finest estates in Puligny, comes this almost perfect expression of White Burgundy, from a superb vintage. Tremendous purity of fruit, and a concentrated, rich creamy finish.
37. CHARDONNAY 'Coleccion' 2008 16.50
Michel Torino, Calchaqui Valley, Argentina
The vineyards of Michel Torino are located at 1,700 metres in the Northwest of Argentina giving the vines intense sun exposure at a high altitude and resulting in wines with profound colours and concentrated aromas. This Chardonnay is a great example with tropical fruit tones and a clean citrus finish.
38. ALENTEJO RESERVA, 2007 (O) 24.00
Herdade do Esporão, Portugal
Esporão Branco D.O.C. Reserva is a ripe and rich, full bodied dry white wine with fantastic depth and complexity resulting from fermentation in new American oak barrels. Crystal clear, straw colour. On the nose, peach and melon fruit with spicy oak touches. Rich, complex, creamy palate, ripe ... A great find.
40. PINOT GRIS, 2004 26.50
Firesteed Estate, Oregon, USA
Showing great varietal characteristics of ripe pear, this superbly concentrated wine also hints at Crème Brûlée and cinnamon, with a fleshy richness underpinned by a brilliant mineral edge. Off dry, and delightful with full flavoured dishes.

Light Fruity Reds

Great without food, or with salads, light meat and many fish dishes.

- 41. BEAUJOLAIS VILLAGES, 2006 19.95
Chateau de Grandmont, Beaujolais, France
Jean-Charles Pivot is a master winemaker and this wonderfully fresh and fruity wine is undoubtedly of 'Cru' quality. This is crammed to the brim with soft, juicy and very succulent raspberry and red cherry flavours.
- 42. FLEURIE, Clos de la Chapelle des Bois, 2006 26.50
Domaine Fernand Verpoix, Beaujolais, France
Fleurie is known as the 'Queen' of Beaujolais because of its elegance and finesse. Produced from 100% old vine Gamay, this is fresh, light and 'ultra-juicy'
- 43. TARRANGO, 2007 16.50
Brown Brothers, Milawa, Victoria, Australia
Tarrango is a specially developed grape variety producing a very light yet full flavoured cherry scented red, which drinks perfectly on its own or with lighter meat and fish dishes.
- 44. SANCERRE ROUGE, Les Cailleries 2005 36.50
Domaine Vacheron, Loire, France
One of the view domaines that produce excellent red Sancerre as well as white. Great red-purple colour with a very appealing nose stuffed with Pinot Noir character - slightly roasted black cherry fruit, with a streak of fine, dark chocolate. Silky texture and a persistent satin finish. Lightish and very elegant.

Classic, Elegant, Fruit-Driven Reds

Classic wines to accompany food, these are stylish and elegant, perfect with all meat dishes, and for those who prefer a less fleshy style of wine

45. MERCUREY, les Ormeaux, 2005 33.00
Domaine Jean Marechal, Mercurey, Burgundy, France
This small family owned winery specialises in deeply coloured, intense wines, and their 'single vineyard' Mercurey has sweet black cherry fruit on the nose, and complex layers of black fruit and a hint of oak, on the palate.
46. GEVREY CHAMBERTIN, 2005 48.00
Domaine Dupont-Tisserandot, Cote de Nuits, Burgundy, France
An exciting find, this Domaine only ships a tiny amount to the UK, mostly selling to some of the best Parisian restaurants. Their reds are simply superb - ripe, concentrated, handcrafted wines, with silky black cherry fruitiness and superbly integrated oak. The 2005 is typical of the superb vintage, open and forward.
47. CHÂTEAU DES JOUALLES, 2005 19.50
Bordeaux Superieur, France
From the same team that made the excellent Château Lassegue, St Emilion. This is deeply coloured, ripe, fruit-driven Claret, with excellent structure.
60% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon and 20% Cabernet Franc.
48. RIOJA RESERVA, 2002 27.00
Ondarre, Rioja, Spain
From one of the most advanced and quality conscious wineries in Rioja, the Reserva is aged for over three years (two in oak casks), before being released. Full of rich, ripe oaky fruit, with a superb, long vanilla finish.
49. PINOT NOIR, 2006 36.50
Nautilus Estate, Marlborough, New Zealand
Produced at the specialised Pinot Noir winery at Nautilus Estate, this wine is a carefully selected blend from six vineyard sites. The Pinot Noir 2006 is dark ruby in colour with a lifted aroma of plums and black cherry against a background of spicy oak. The palate is medium bodied with a fleshy middle and fine tannins at the finish

Rich, Rounded Smooth Reds

Listed in order of weight (lighter first) these wines are mostly fuller bodied with fantastic concentration of fleshy ripe fruit.

50. BOURGOGNE ROUGE, 2005 22.95
Domaine Jean Marechal, Burgundy, France
A lush, juicy Pinot Noir, with surprising complexity, reflecting the granite and limestone terroir of the Maconnais. Great value for burgundy of this quality.
51. VALPOLICELLA, Classico Superiore, 2006 23.50
Zenato, Veneto, Italy
Probably the best Valpolicella you will ever try! Medium bodied, soft and voluptuous, with complex aromas of leather and spice, and a pervasive cherry fruitiness. Outstanding.
53. TORTOISE HILL RED, 2005/06 22.50
Glen Carlou Vineyards, Paarl, South Africa
Widely recognised as one of the best Wineries in South Africa, a superbly rounded blend of Merlot, Shiraz, Touriga National and Zinfandel
54. MERLOT-GRENACHE, 2008 13.95
Les Terrasses, Vin de Pays de Coteaux de l'Ardeche, France
A Soft, rounded and fruity red from long established vineyards in the foothills between the Ardeche and La Baume rivers. Deep coloured bouquet of ripe cherry fruit, very approachable, with emphasis on ripeness and "crunchy" fruit with excellent balance.
55. TEMPRANILLO, Castillo de Montblanc, 2007 16.50
Conca de Barbera, Catalonia, Spain
This takes the famous red grape of Rioja to high altitude, cooler vineyards in the hills of Catalonia. Deep purple in colour with herbs and cherries on the scent, and flavours of spicy plums, tobacco leaf and red cherries. Extremely quaffable!
56. MALBEC Calafate Reserva, 2007 18.00
Neuquen Patagonia, Argentina
Malbec is Argentina's 'ace in the hole' as this grape thrives in the hot, arid conditions of this country. This wine is a thoroughly modern, fruity red with masses of ripe, spicy plum and damson fruit.
57. MERLOT, 2007 15.95
Vina Carmen, Rapel Valley, Chile
Rich, deep and plummy, with hints of chocolate on the nose. It is easy to see why Chile has become a spiritual home for Merlot.
58. COTES DU RHONE VILLAGES, 'Visan', 2005 22.50
Domaine Roche-Audran, Buisson, Rhone Valley, France
A deep-coloured meaty red with excellent purity of fruit and a fleshiness combined with a suppleness that is so rarely achieved. A wonderful finish and complexity. This is very talented wine-making indeed.

Heavy, Powerful Reds, with Real Backbone.

Most of these wines are made to be drunk with flavoursome foods.

59. MASSAYA 'Cuvee Classic' Red, 2005 24.00
Brunier, Ghosn & Hebrard, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon
One of our most exciting discoveries, a collaboration between one of the best producers of Chateauneuf du Pape (Daniel Brunier of Vieux Telegraph), Dominique Hebrard of St Emilion (Chateau Trianon) and the Lebanese Proprietors, Sami and Ramzi Ghosn, a blend of Cinsault and Cabernet Sauvignon, smooth, supple and very spicy. Quite amazing!
60. PIC SAINT LOUP, 2001 26.00
Châteaux Lavabre, Languedoc, France
New wood and one-year-old wood for the Château Lavabre produce explosive aromas and fine tannins for this great vintage. The bouquet and palate are so evocative of the region and the wine had lovely velvety fruit.
61. RIBERA DEL DUERO, 2004 25.00
Prado Rey, Cuvee Premium, Bodegas Ventosilla, Spain
Some of Spain's finest quality reds come from the Ribera del Duero region. The Prado Rey is a great example. It is immaculately made, crammed full of succulent, blackberry fruit combined with a hint of vanilla & cinnamon. The wine has excellent weight & richness with wonderful velvety tannins.
62. PINOTAGE, Beyerskloof, 2007 17.00
Beyers Treuter, Stellenbosch, South Africa
From the "King of Pinotage", rich, well structured, and one of the best - deep raspberry fruit, with good backbone and the whiff of wood smoke and tar.
63. CHÂTEAU LA TOUR DE BY, 2003 32.50
Cru Grand Bourgeois, Medoc, Bordeaux, France
Widely regarded as the most consistent of all the Cru Bourgeois wines due to a ferociously rigorous selection of grapes in the winery. Deeply coloured, full bodied and concentrated with a rich blackberry character and ripe supple tannins.
64. SHIRAZ, 'Moore's Creek, 2006 18.00
Tyrell's Wines, South-Eastern Australia
Deep and vibrant, with a blackberry spiciness, hint of eucalyptus, and fine grained tannins. Everything we look for from this popular grape.
65. BAROLO, 2004 42.00
Azienda Agricola Patrizi, Farigliano, Piedmont, Italy
In the rolling Piedmontese hills, Nebbiolo produces full-flavoured, gamey, tannic wines with lovely acidity, making them a wonderful match for full flavoured meat dishes. Patrizi specialise in earlier drinking Barolos, not allowing the fruit to dry out.

66. CHÂTEAU LASSEGUE, 1998 40.00
Grand Cru, St. Emilion, Bordeaux, France
A superb vintage of this Merlot based Claret, made from 30 year old vines. The concentrated damson and cassis body is balanced by well integrated tannins.

Heavy, Powerful Reds, with Real Backbone.

(Cont..)

Most of these wines are made to be drunk with flavoursome foods.

67. ALTER EGO DE PALMER, 2003 65.00
Chateau Palmer, Margaux, Bordeaux, France
The second wine of Chateau Palmer is held in high regard in Bordeaux. Deep ruby colour with aromas of blackcurrant and liquorice. Made in the true Palmer style, modern, exotic, and beautifully well sculpted.
68. CHATEAU PICHON LONGUEVILLE COMTESSE DE LALANDE, 1988 125.00
2eme Cru Classé, Pauillac, Bordeaux, France
A world famous wine whose finesse and elegance are legendary. The stunning 1988 presents a wine which has a beautiful texture and colour, a glorious aroma, and a memorable finish. Something very special.
69. CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE, 2000 85.00
Chateau de Beaucastel, Rhone, France
The opaque ruby/purple-coloured 2000 Beaucastel offers a profoundly sweet perfume of melted liquorice, blackberries, and black cherries backed up by loads of full body, moderately high but sweet, well-integrated tannin. A great vintage and a well-matured classic.
70. RIDGE ZINFANDEL, Lytton Springs, 2005 47.50
Ridge Vineyards, Cupertino, Santa Cruz Mountains, California, USA
Paul Draper has been the wine maker at ridge since 1969 and is one of the main revivalists of the Zinfandel grape in California. This is a big, opulent, and decadent wine with a voluptuous texture and a focused, fleshy, black cherry & spicy fruit finish. A real classic from a great vineyard & wine maker.
71. CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE, 2004 44.50
Domaine de la Roquette, Rhone, France
Surpassing its more famous sister Vieux Telegraphe in recent press tastings (both estates are run by the Brunier brothers) Very rich, with an intense blackberry and liquorice fruitiness, unfiltered to retain the true character of the region. A "benchmark" wine of genuine world class.
72. COTE ROTIE 'Brune et Blonde', 2002 55.00
E. Guigal, Rhone, France
The peak of the classic northern Rhones from the canonised E. Guigal.

Exciting, evolved, rich, & textured like satin.

Paul Cluver, Elgin, South Africa

One of the finest sweet wines in the world. Lusciously honeyed, fabulously exotic and decadently potent. Dried apricots, spices and honey characters yet with utterly gorgeous acidity which keeps the wine light, pure and refreshing.

- 82. MONBAZILLAC ANCIENNE CURÉ, 2005 15.95
Domaine de l'Ancienne Curé, France
Intensely honeyed on the nose and deep golden in colour. Rich and full-bodied in the mouth with ripe raisin like fruit and great acidity to balance. Hints of marzipan, orange peel and spices.
