	Vale da Mata is the name of a small, old vineyard of just a few hectares situated on a steep terrain with rocky soil. The wine was made as a field blend following a philosophy of minimal intervention & indigenous yeasts. Aged in French oak barrels for six months, the wine has a subtle complexity. It shows fine aromas of minerality and oak-derived spice surround a core of citrus fruit. Lovely weight on the palate, which is beautifully balanced by pronounced acidity and leads to a fresh and mouthwatering finish.
